Sir,

I have the honor to submit, herewith the stipend order issued in the names of Kodanda Sastry, Seetharama Sastry and others of the Tipturu Taluk and to state that the inam is for personal benefit and to continue for life only Kodanda-rama Sastry is reported to have died and his stipend money has therefore lapsed to Govt. Seetharama Sastry now applies for the grant of an amended stipend order in his name The name or names denoted by "and others" are not known, but it would appear there was an other man by name Pattabhirama Sastry who is said to be now unheard of.

2 I request therefore that a new stipend order may be issued in favor of Seetharama Sastry for her portion of the stipend viz Rs 1. 5 4.

3 Seetharama Sastry's life-certificate and the entire vernacular papers relating to the stipend in question are enclosed for reference

Recommendation of the Assistant	Review by the Special Assistant and confirmation by the Inam Commissioner
16	17

From the accompanying correspondence, it appears that the late Commissioner of Mysore ordered the Superintendent of the Chitaldroog Division to pay the three brothers, Pattabiramasastry, Seetaramasastry and Kodandaramasastry, a sum of Rupees 4 monthly in the room of the abolished "Tirupe Inirasi" grant paid from the Balaji fields, and that it was continued to them upto 1869, in which the Deputy Supt directed the Amildar to stop the payment of those who were absent from the country. Pattabhi Ramasastry has gone to Banaras, and his share (1/3 of the grant) is in consequence kept in abeyance. — The other 2 brothers mentioned in Column 7 lay claim once to the full payment, and in another time to 3/4 on the plea, that they are step brothers, and that, therefore Seetaramasastry is entitled to 1/2 and Kodandaramasastry to 1/4 of the grant, in virtue of the deed of partition of their family property. — The Deputy Superintendent of Tumkur does not seem to have approved of the suggestion made by the Amildar in the matter, but ordered him to pay the present incumbents @ 1/3 each. Under these circumstances, I recommend that Rs 32 may be confirmed to the incumbents in Column 7 at Rupees 16 each as a life grant; suspending the share Pattabhiramasastry pending his arrival.

Review by the Special Assistant and confirmation by the Inam Commissioner.

The grant is valid and to be continued only to the life time of the present recipients all Chumbiara Inirasi and Kadabikshan allowances, When converted into money have been Similarly treated under the orders of the late Sir Mark Cubbon so that as each of these recipients cease to exist, their shares to lapse to the state.

As regards the shares, I beg leave to observe that under the Hindu Law in the case of Brahmins, to which sect I presume the parties belong, the division of property among the sons of a father altho the mothers are different and therefore not uterine, is equal, no Cattu. Bagah or share according to wives is allowed Therefore the allowance should be paid equally — between the brothers.

But if they have by certain arrangements divided the shares otherwise we need not disturb the arrangement, but as lapses occur or as the parties happen to be absent at the Inaster and unheard of the shares of the present only to be paid at Rs: 16- each.

The shares of Nos. 1 and 2 at Rupees 16 each to be confirmed in separate certificates and continued for their life. The share of the absentee to be attached and continued on a satisfactory proof of his his identity.
